

To be baptised is to become a child of God Our Father, to share in the death and resurrection of Christ, and become a Temple of the Holy Spirit. This involves a serious undertaking to become a follower of Our Lord as a member of His Body, the Church.

So as parents of a child to be baptised, you are asked to consider the following questions:

1. Do you accept that in asking to have your child Baptised, you are undertaking the duty of raising your child in the faith and practice of the Catholic Church, so that by observing the Commandments you child will learn to love God and Neighbour as Christ taught in the Gospels?

Answer : .....

2. Are you willing to fulfil this duty by word and example?

Answer : .....

We declare that we understand the meaning, the privileges, and the duties of Baptism and that we have answered these questions truthfully before God.

In the case of a ‘mixed’ marriage, the partner who belongs to another Christian Community or is not a Christian may wish to give the same undertaking. If not, then please make the following declaration:

I am willing to allow my child to be baptised according to the rite and teaching of the Catholic Church:

Congratulations

The family of the Church is looking forward to welcoming and introducing your baby to the ways of faith.

There will be a lot of growing for your child to do in the coming years. Your baby will be growing physically, mentally and emotionally. Baptism is the start of a life-long process of learning to love God and to live in His love. Just as you will help your child to grow in other ways, so it will be your responsibility to help him or her grow in the ways of faith.

If you are ready to accept this responsibility, then the Baptism will be a real highlight for you and your family. To help you prepare for and get the most out of this, the Parish runs a preparation course for parents asking to have their child Baptised. The course is held about four or five times a year, on Sundays.

Baptism is so important that, although the Church is not in the habit of refusing to Baptise, it may be delayed a little if more time is needed for you to prepare for all that is really involved.

Please complete this form and return when you come to Mass on Sunday, so that we can send you details of the next preparation. We will then look at the Baptism, consider what it means for your child and you and how to take that on, and fix dates and details for the ceremony on what will be a most important day in the life of your child and your family.
