R/. We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Come before him, singing for joy.

Know that he, the Lord, is God.
He made us, we belong to him,
we are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Indeed, how good is the Lord,
eternal his merciful love.
He is faithful from age to age.

Apocalypse 7: 9, 14 – 17.
John 10: 27 – 30.

Intercession : Lord, in your mercy
Response : Hear our prayer

Christ is Risen, Alleluia! Risen indeed! Alleluia!

A little boy opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out. He picked up the object and looked at it. What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed in between the pages. ‘Mum, look what I found,’ the boy called out. ‘What have you got there, dear?’ With astonishment in the young boy’s voice, he answered, ‘I think it’s Adam’s underwear!’

*****

There once were two skunks. One was named ‘In’ and one named ‘Out’. When Out was in, In was out, and when Out was out, In was in. One day, Out was in and In was out, and mother skunk said, ‘Out, I want you to go out and bring In in.’ Out quickly went outside and almost immediately returned with In. Mother skunk was amazed and gasped. ‘How did you DO that so quickly?’ ‘Easy,’ said Out. ‘In stinked.’

A judge had just fined a man £25 for speeding. When the judge gave the man the receipt, the man yelled sarcastically, ‘What am I supposed to do with this? Frame it?!’ The judge replied, ‘No, keep it. When you get three, you get a bicycle.’

A Plea for the Defenceless

O Lord, hear the cry of the defenceless
The men who are defeated by life.
The children who have no food to eat,
The homeless who have no place to sleep.
The women who are beaten and abused.
The unborn who are killed in the womb.
The elderly who are shoved aside.
O, Lord, hear the cry of the defenceless.
For Jesus' sake.
Amen.

Sustain these communities in their commitment to offer appropriate vocational catechesis and ways of proceeding towards each one's particular consecration. Grant the wisdom needed for vocational discernment, so that in all things the greatness of your merciful love may shine forth. This month, we are thinking about the people who make sure that our altar looks worthy of worship to God. Flowers are arranged beautifully for Mass each week and for all other happy and sad occasions. The altar linen is laundered to a professional standard and altar breads, wine and candles are always available; the altar is prepared before Mass is offered. Thank you for ensuring these tasks are done, it helps us all to think about God and his sacrifice for us.

Your Choir needs you – Please speak to Chris Pugsley if you are able to help out with the Choir.

There will be a Shared Lunch on Thursday, 21st April. We meet at 11.50 to put the food on the tables, then we say the Angelus at midday. After that, we enjoy a tasty lunch in good company with lively conversation.

BE THE GARDENER OF MY SOUL

Spirit of the living God, be the Gardener of my soul. For so long I have been waiting, silent and still – experiencing a winter of the soul. But now, in the strong name of Jesus Christ, I dare to ask:

Clear away the dead growth of the past,
Break up the hard clods of custom and
routine,
Stir in the rich compost of vision and challenge.

IMPORTANT: There is a sign attached to the side wall of the Presbytery asking people NOT to park or block the entrance as that area is in constant use both day and night. There have been times when the clergy were unable to attend sick calls due to people leaving their cars whilst they visit the church for Mass.

Remember, when you cause a problem by your selfishness other communities suffer, as the Priest is either late or unable to travel to another church. So I ask that you take note both of these words and the sign and that you do not park your car at the rear of the house.
Thank you for your cooperation.
