Intercession : Lord hear us
Response : Lord graciously hear us.

The doctor told a man waiting in a surgery: ‘I’ve got good news and bad news. The bad news is that you have an inoperable brain tumour. The good news is that our hospital has just been awarded a certificate to perform brain transplants and, by chance, there has been an accident right out front in which a young couple have been killed. You can have whichever brain you like. The man’s brain is £100,000 and the woman’s brain is £30,000.’

The patient said: ‘If you don’t mind me asking, doctor, why is there such a large difference between the price of a male and female brain?’

The doctor explained : ‘The female brain is used.’

^^

Having popped into the supermarket to pick up a bag of crisps on the way to the match, the young man was impatient to get through the checkout as quickly as possible. He headed for the ten-item express lane, only to see an elderly woman push in front of him at the last minute, her trolley piled high with groceries. He was fuming at the flagrant disregard for the ‘ten-items or less’ rule, but was left utterly speechless when the cashier beckoned the old lady forward and asked sweetly: ‘Now, Gladys, which ten items would you like to buy?’

^^

A Scotsman and his wife were at an air show. They stood in awe as the planes looped and dived and rolled around the sky. Then the show’s announcer offered a free ride to anyone who could experience the aerobatics without putting up any protest or uttering so much as a sound while in the air. That was more than he could resist. The announcer explained before take-off: “Remember, if you or your wife says a word while you’re up there, it’ll be £10 each.” And off they flew, looping and diving and soaring, even flying upside-down. But not a word was heard from him.

When the plane landed, the pilot congratulated him. “You have certainly got guts. I tried every trick in the book and you didn’t open your mouth.”

“Aye, but for a while there I thought I’d lose my money, when you did the loop-the-loop and my wife fell out.”

ORDINATION TO THE PERMANENT DIACONATE

In November 2008, Archbishop Peter Smith formally closed down the Parishes of Saint Anne, Basil and Gwladys, David Lewis, David, Mary and Michael's, and formed one parish serving the West of Newport, This decision was not taken lightly as each parish had its own history and identity and thus contributed much to the communities they served. The practice of the Faith is still active and alive under the banner of All Saints.

I recognise for some it was hard to grasp the birth of All Saints and still is, but spiritually, canonically and financially, we work together not for any individual community, but for the wider community of All Saints. From the Parish of All Saints, one of our own has offered himself to serve the Lord, by serving you.

Next Sunday January 24th, Pasquale Cinotti will be ordained to the permanent Diaconate. Like myself, along with Michael Doyle and John Boye, we do not serve individual Parishes/Communities, but the one UNITED parish of All Saints, the New and Active face of Catholicism in this part of South Wales.

You are ALL invited to the Ordination at 5pm in St Mary's Church
Followed by tea and cake in the Institute afterwards. The bar will be open.

May Pasquale be blessed by a long and active Ministry.

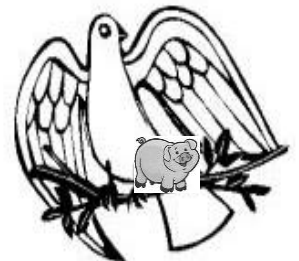

PLEASE NOTE THERE IS NO 6pm MASS SUNDAY JANUARY 24TH

PRAYER FOR PEACE

Lord Jesus Christ, who are called the Prince of Peace, who are yourself our peace and reconciliation, who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace. Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice, and brotherly love. Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace. Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace. May all peoples on the earth become as brothers and sisters. May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.
