5th Sunday of Eastertide

(Sunday Readings: of year C :: Weekdays of year 1 :: Breviary: Week 1)

Scripture: Acts 14: 14, 21 – 27.
Psalm 144.

R/. I will bless your name for ever, O God my King.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord./
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign/
and declare your might, O God,
to make known to men your mighty deeds
and the glorious splendour of your reign.

Yours is an everlasting kingdom;
Your rule lasts from age to age.

Apocalypse 21: 1 – 5.
John 13: 31 – 35.

Intercession : Lord hear us.

Response : Lord Graciously hear us.

Christ is Risen, Alleluia Risen indeed! Alleluia!

An elderly man took his little grandson for a walk round the local cemetery. Pausing before one gravestone he said "There lies a very honest man. He died owing me £50 but he struggled to the end of pay off his debts, and if anyone has gone to heaven, he has."

They walked on a bit further and then came to another grave. The old man pointed to the gravestone and said "Now there's a different type of man altogether. He owed me £60 and he died without ever trying to pay me back. If anyone has gone to hell, he has."

The little boy thought for a while and then said "You know, Grandpa, you are very lucky."

"Why?" asked the old man in surprise.

"Well, whichever place you go to, you'll have some money to draw on."

A pupil describing in an essay his holiday in Aberystwyth, astonished and delighted his teacher by spelling the town's name correctly every time he used it. The next day the teacher asked him to the front of the class and said "Show the class how well you can spell. Write 'Aberystwyth' on the blackboard." "Please, miss, I can't any more," he pleaded, "I've eaten all my rock."

Two men are talking in the pub. 'You look familiar,' says one. 'I'm an actor. You might have seen me in the movies,' replies the other. 'Oh, where do you sit?' says the first man.

Happy Birthday

May we wish
Queen Elizabeth
God's blessing on her 90th Birthday.

May the Lord continue to bless and protect both her, her family and our country.

Alleluia

This month, we are thinking about the people who make sure that our altar looks worthy of worship to God. Flowers are arranged beautifully for Mass each week and for all other happy and sad occasions. The altar linen is laundered to a professional standard and altar breads, wine and candles are always available; the altar is prepared before Mass is offered. Thank you for ensuring these tasks are done, it helps us all to think about God and his sacrifice for us.

Your Choir needs you – Please speak to Chris Pugsley if you are able to help out with the Choir.

Bettws Food Bank send their thanks for your continuing support in giving non-perishable food stuffs, toiletries and financial donations. All your gifts are very much appreciated.

Thanks to All Saints Parishioners for supporting the 'Aid to Church In Need' appeal. The appeal was to ask your local politician to support the Parliamentary motion on 20th April 2016, asking that genocide against Christians, Yazidis and religious minorities in Syria and Iraq, by Daesh(ISIS), is punishable as a crime.

A 'THANK YOU' NOTE FROM EIMER BURNS

I would like to thank everyone who extended birthday wishes to me on my recent 80th Birthday.

I was overwhelmed at the number of Birthday wishes, cards and gifts which I received, it made my 80th Birthday special and I feel truly blessed to be part of such a kind, caring community.

A special 'thank you' to Father Michael Doyle for the blessing, I deeply appreciated his thoughtfulness, it meant the world to me.

Thank you all

Eimer Burns

CORPUS CHRISTI

During this centenary year, as we look toward the future of our diocese, Archbishop George invites the clergy and people of the Archdiocese of Cardiff to join him for the celebration of Mass followed by a Procession and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Let us come into the presence of Christ himself in the Blessed Sacrament to offer thanks and praise for the past 100 years of life within the Archdiocese of Cardiff, and to commend to his Mercy the future of the Church in this part of Wales and throughout the entire Province.

The event will be held on Sunday, 29th May, in Bute Park (Castle grounds), adjacent to the site of the Black Friars Priory.

For further information go to www.rcadc.org/100th-anniversary/corpus-christi
