Scripture: Acts 15: 1 – 2, 22 – 29.
Psalm 66.

*R/. Let the peoples praise you, O God;
Let all the peoples praise you.*

O God, be gracious and bless us
and let your face shed its light upon us.
So will your ways be known upon earth
and all nations learn your saving help.

Let the nations be glad and exult
for you rule the world with justice.
With fairness you rule the peoples,
you guide the nations on earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
May God still give us his blessing
till the ends of the earth revere him.

Intercession : Lord hear us

Response : Lord graciously hear us

YEAR OF MERCY

Talk by Kieran O'Brien

Wednesday May 4th 7.30 pm in Saint Mary's Institute.

Light refreshments available

Pope Francis makes a special plea in this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy to reflect on the poor who “have a special experience of God’s mercy”. Kieran O'Brien, coordinator for CAFOD, will unpack the theme of Mercy and reflect on how the flow of mercy that we receive should flow out to others. We do hope as many of you can find time to come along to this meeting as part of Pope Francis’ calling during this extraordinary year. Wed 4 May, St Mary's Institute, Newport, 7.30pm – All welcome. Please see the poster at the back of Church for further information.

There is also further information about this on our website – which can be found on –

Christ is Risen, Alleluia! Risen indeed! Alleluia!

An English visitor to a small Welsh village was approached by one of the deacons of the local chapel who asked him whether he would like to attend their chapel on the following Sunday. “Wouldn’t that be a little pointless?” replied the Englishman. “After all, your services are held in Welsh and I don’t understand the language.” “Ah yes,” said the deacon, “but the collection is in English.”

A professor was giving a lecture on company slogans in a university advertising and marketing class. ‘John,’ he asked, ‘which company has the slogan “Come fly the friendly skies”?’ ‘United,’ John answered. ‘Brenda, can you tell me which company has the slogan, “Don’t leave home without it”?’ Brenda answered with the correct credit card company with no difficulty. ‘Now, Paul, tell me who used the slogan, “Just do it”.’ Paul was quiet for a moment before answering, ‘Mum?’

A woman knelt in the confessional and said, ‘Bless me, Father, for I have sinned,’ ‘What is it, child?’ ‘Father, I have committed the sin of vanity. Twice a day I gaze at myself in the mirror and tell myself how beautiful I am.’ The priest turned, took a good look at her, and said, ‘My daughter, I have good news. That isn’t a sin – it’s only a mistake.’

This month, we are thinking particularly about the people who clean the church and the people who maintain the church. Their hard work means that our church is a beautiful and safe place in which to worship God, to meet with old friends and make new friends. Thank you very much Folks.

Many of our ladies were given a warm welcome at St Julian's Methodist Church on Caerleon Road, when they went to see the exhibition that was being hosted of 33 bible scenes, all hand knitted by ladies at St Georges United Reform church in Hartlepool. The exhibition was a fine example of a visual prayer, and each knitted figure was an example of an action prayer. The amount of time and talent needed to create such an exhibition and to provide such warm hospitality for everyone, is boundless. Our thanks and prayers go to everyone concerned.

The next meeting of the Natter's Group will take place on Thursday, 11th May at 2pm. Everyone is welcome to join us for a good afternoon of tea, cakes, biscuits and lively conversation.

Please can you add your name to the list at the back of church if you wish to have Mass in your home during the month of May.
