Evening Prayer & Benediction resumes this Sunday 13th January 2019.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus dates back to the seventeen century, to Sr. Margaret Mary Alacoque, who received apparitions from Our Lord. During these apparitions, He explained that he wanted people to practice it widely; Our Lord asked for acts of reparation be made, for frequent reception of Holy Communion, and the keeping of a Holy Hour. The Sacred Heart Prayer Group gathers for the Holy Hour on 19th and 26th January, beginning at 3:00pm in St. Mary's.

FOR OUR NEIGHBOURS

Oh Lord, the Son, In a world full of anger and frustration, Teach us, your servants, your friends, your sisters and your brothers, To overturn the tables and tear down the fences Which turn away the hungry and homeless: To feed and house the disciple that knocks on our door
In the guise of the stranger, And to find the Love we seek in loving others.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD - Cycle C – 13.01.19.

Entrance Antiphon:

After the Lord was baptised, the heavens were opened,
and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove,
and the voice of the Father thundered:
This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

Psalm Response:

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia!
Someone is coming, said John, someone greater than I.
He will baptise you with the Holy spirit and with fire.
Alleluia!

Memorial Acclamation:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
And profess your Resurrection
Until you come again.

Communion Antiphon:

Behold the One of whom John said:
I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God.

Returning to Ordinary Time

With the solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord, we mark the end of the Christmas season, and begin afresh the season of Ordinary Time. The word 'ordinary' can be rather misleading, as it denotes sameness or boring, even. Yet this new season of Ordinary Time is full of a unique richness, it is full of its own distinctive flavour. The famous Abbot of Solemnes, Dom Prosper Guéranger observes that what the liturgical year effects our soul. He says that "the succession of seasons imparts to the Christian the elements of the Christian life".

At the heart of this new 'Ordinary Time' season, is, of course, the distinctive green vestments worn by the clergy, and with which our altars and tabernacles are veiled. The colour green takes us to nature, to the springtime, to the new life which will bloom forth before us in the coming months. Green, for us, therefore, is a symbol of hope. By directing our thoughts and minds to this 'blessed hope', we are being directed to the Kingdom of Heaven, and our longing and yearning we have to journey there. The rhythm of Ordinary Time aids the preparation and purification of our soul; through our encounter with the Lord in the readings and in the Eucharist, we realise that it is only in placing our trust in the Lord and not ourselves, can we begin to make that journey toward the Kingdom of Heaven.

As this new season of Ordinary Time unfolds, we are invited to come to reflect upon those 'elements of the Christian life' that will aid our preparation and purification for the Kingdom. As these elements unfold in the Liturgy of the Word, and explained through the homilies over the next year, let us pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit afresh in our lives and in the life of our parish.

Candlemas is coming order your candle now!

February 2nd marks the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple, Christ the light of the world comes into the Temple to be consecrated to his Father in heaven. The feast is traditionally known as 'Candlemas', a day in particular where churches bless the candles they will use throughout the year.

After last year's successful celebration and the desire of the faithful to take a blessed candle home, we are once again taking orders for the Candlemas Candle (pictured). Simply pop your name on the list and give the payment to your community representative. The candle will be ordered, reserved for you and blessed at our Candlemas celebration at the 10.00am Mass in St. Mary's and can be either collected at the end of the Mass, or sent to your community for collection. The candle measures 7/8" x 12" and carries an image of Our Lady carrying the light in her hands.

Orders will need to be received by Sunday 20th January 2019 to ensure arrival in time for the Feast.

Cost £2.50
